CLAUSE 78, by adding the underlined text as shown and deleting the text shown as struck out:

Entry and inspection

- 78 (1) For the purpose of an investigation, the chief executive officer may, subject to any limit or condition established in the rules, do any of the following without a warrant:
- (a) during business hours, enter the business premises in which a licensee, trainee or law firm practises law;
 - (b) inspect or examine the records, or any other thing, of a licensee, trainee or law firm that relate to the practice of law by the licensee, trainee or law firm;
 - (c) observe the practice of law by the licensee, trainee or law firm or the licensee's supervision of the practice of law.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the chief executive officer may enter business premises located in the private residence of a licensee or trainee only with the consent of the licensee or trainee or under the authority of a warrant issued under section 79 (3).
- (3) For the purpose of an investigation, the chief executive officer may order a licensee, a trainee, the representative of a law firm or any other person who may have information or records that are relevant to the investigation to do one or more of the following:
- (a) attend, in person or by electronic means, before the chief executive officer to answer questions on oath or in any other manner;
 - (b) provide written answers to written questions;
 - (c) produce for the chief executive officer a record or thing in the custody or under the control of the licensee, trainee, ~~or law firm or person~~ or person.
- (4) The chief executive officer may apply to the Supreme Court for an order directing a person subject to an order under subsection (3) to comply with the order.
- (5) In granting an order under subsection (4), the court may do the following:
- (a) modify an order under subsection (3);
 - (b) make an order for costs of the proceeding.
- (6) If a licensee, a trainee or the representative of a law firm fails to comply with an order under subsection (3), the chief executive officer may make an order suspending the licensee's licence, the trainee's enrolment as a trainee or the permit of the law firm until the licensee, trainee or representative complies with the order.

- (7) An order under subsection (6) must
 - (a) be in writing,
 - (b) include reasons for the order,
 - (c) specify the duration of the suspension,
 - (d) be delivered to the licensee, trainee or law firm subject to the order, and
 - (e) inform the licensee, trainee or law firm subject to the order of the right to apply, under subsection (8), for a review of the order.
- (8) A licensee, trainee or law firm subject to an order under subsection (6) may, at any time while the order is effective, apply to the tribunal for a review of the order.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' TIME

(Monday morning only)

PRIVATE MEMBERS' STATEMENTS (STANDING ORDER 25A)

ADJOURNED DEBATE ON PRIVATE MEMBERS' MOTIONS

5 Mr. D'Eith moved—

Be it resolved that this House agrees to put the interests of regular people who are looking to afford a home ahead of real estate speculators and investors. (Mr. Begg adjourned the debate.)

6 Ms. Routledge moved—

Be it resolved that this House agrees that instead of working for those at the top, governments must always work to deliver results for all British Columbians and put people first. (Mr. Starchuk adjourned the debate.)

19 Ms. Bond moved—

Be it resolved that this House agrees that Government must do more to address the crisis in women's health care. (Ms. Merrifield adjourned the debate.)

20 Ms. Chant moved—

Be it resolved that this House supports this Government's work to train, recruit and retain more health care professionals to relieve the pressures on British Columbia's health care system and increase access to health care services. (Ms. Rice adjourned the debate.)

24 Ms. Sturko moved—

Be it resolved that this House supports scrapping this Government's decriminalization experiment. (Ms. Babchuk adjourned the debate.)

26 Mr. D'Eith moved—

Be it resolved that this House recognizes the importance of arts and the creative industries in our province and celebrates their commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion, accessibility and sustainability. (Mr. Chandra Herbert adjourned the debate.)

32 Mr. Halford moved—

Be it resolved that this House agrees that British Columbians deserve better than what they have received over the last seven years of neglect. (Mr. Routley adjourned the debate.)

PRIVATE MEMBERS' MOTIONS ON NOTICE

1 Ms. Greene to move—

Be it resolved that this House agrees climate change is real, caused by humans, and is an urgent global crisis that requires B.C. to take action to reduce our greenhouse gas emissions in order to protect people and our environment.

2 Mr. Singh to move—

Be it resolved that this House supports the reinvestments made in access to justice services, like legal aid, after drastic cuts were made by the previous government.

3 Ms. Paddon to move—

Be it resolved that this House agrees governments should drive to reduce income inequality and poverty faced by people across British Columbia.

4 Mr. Singh to move—

Be it resolved that this House fully commits to doing the work needed to be anti-racist while also working to dismantle the systemic racism and discrimination faced by Indigenous, Black and people of colour across the province.

7 Ms. Routledge to move—

Be it resolved that this House agrees to work to eliminate gender-based violence, and that this Government continues to support people experiencing all forms of gender-based violence.

8 Mr. Yao to move—

Be it resolved that this House commits to reflecting the full diversity of British Columbians through each elected caucus.

9 Ms. Greene to move—

Be it resolved that this House recognizes the importance of free prescription contraception for all British Columbians and supports the adoption of this policy in B.C.

17 Ms. Kirkpatrick to move—

Be it resolved that this House endorses a provincially-backed rent-to-own program.
