Explanatory Notes

CLAUSE 1:    *[Wildfire Act, section 24.1]

- adds a new provision regarding notice of, and an opportunity to be heard in relation to, a proposed order under Division 2 of Part 3 of the Act;
- provides that the notice must not be given more than 3 years after the date on which the relevant facts first came to the knowledge of an official;
- allows the minister to extend the 3-year period by up to 18 months.

BILL 13 – 2025

MISCELLANEOUS STATUTES

AMENDMENT ACT, 2025

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:

PART 1 – FORESTS AMENDMENTS

Wildfire Act

1 The Wildfire Act, S.B.C. 2004, c. 31, is amended by adding the following section to Division 2 of Part 3:

Requirement to give notice and opportunity to be heard

- 24.1 (1) Before making one of the following orders, the minister must give written notice of the proposed order, and an opportunity to be heard, to the person who is the subject of the proposed order:
- (a) an order under section 25 (2) in respect of a person who the minister alleges has caused or contributed to a fire or the spread of a fire;
  - (b) an order under section 26, 27 (1) or 28 (1) in respect of a person who the minister alleges has contravened a provision of this Act or the regulations;
  - (c) an order under section 28 (3) in respect of a person who the minister alleges has not complied with an order under subsection (1) of that section.
- (2) Notice under subsection (1) must not be given more than 3 years after
- (a) the date on which the facts that led to the minister's allegation first came to the knowledge of an official, in the case of a proposed order under section 25 (2), 26, 27 (1) or 28 (1), or
  - (b) the date specified under section 28 (2) (b) (iii), in the case of a proposed order under section 28 (3).
- (3) The minister by order may extend the 3-year period referred to in subsection (2) by up to 18 months, to a maximum total period of 4 years and 6 months.

CLAUSE 2: [Wildfire Act, section 25]

- removes the reference to an opportunity to be heard, consequential to the addition by this Bill of section 24.1 to the Act;
- improves readability of the obligation to provide a copy of an order made under section 25 of the Act, along with relevant information, to the person who is the subject of the order.

CLAUSE 3: [Wildfire Act, section 26] removes the reference to an opportunity to be heard, consequential to the addition by this Bill of section 24.1 to the Act.

CLAUSE 4: [Wildfire Act, section 27]

- removes the reference to an opportunity to be heard, consequential to the addition by this Bill of section 24.1 to the Act;
- improves readability of the obligation to provide a copy of an order made under section 27 of the Act, along with relevant information, to the person who is the subject of the order.

- (4) A document purporting to have been issued by an official, certifying the date on which the facts referred to in subsection (2) (a) first came to the knowledge of an official,
  - (a) is admissible in an appeal under section 39 from the order, without proof of the signature or official character of the individual appearing to have signed the document, and
  - (b) in the absence of evidence to the contrary, is proof of the matter certified.

2     *Section 25 (3) and (4) is repealed and the following substituted:

- (3) The minister must not make an order under subsection (2) unless the minister determines that the person caused or contributed to the fire or the spread of the fire.
- (4) The minister must
  - (a) give a copy of an order made under subsection (2) to the person who is the subject of the order, and
  - (b) inform the person of the following:
    - (i) the amounts payable by the person to the government under the order and the person's liability under section 130 of the Forest Act to pay that amount;
    - (ii) the reasons for the order;
    - (iii) the person's right to a review under section 37 or to an appeal under section 39.

3     *Section 26 is repealed and the following substituted:

Contravention orders

- 26     The minister by order may determine that a person has contravened a provision of this Act or the regulations.

4     *Section 27 (2) is repealed and the following substituted:

- (2) The minister must
  - (a) give a copy of the order made under subsection (1) to the person who is the subject of the order,
  - (b) give the person a copy of the order made under section 26, and
  - (c) inform the person of the following:
    - (i) the amount of any administrative penalty levied against the person by an order under subsection (1) (a) of this section and of the person's liability under section 130 of the Forest Act to pay that amount;
    - (ii) the provision contravened and the reasons for the order or orders;

CLAUSE 5:     [Wildfire Act, section 28]

- removes the reference to an opportunity to be heard, consequential to the addition by this Bill of section 24.1 to the Act;
- improves readability of the obligation to provide a copy of an order made under section 28 of the Act, along with relevant information, to the person who is the subject of the order.

- (iii) the amount of any costs of the government determined under subsection (1) (b) of this section, itemized particulars of those costs and the person's liability under section 130 of the Forest Act to pay that amount;
- (iv) any amount determined under subsection (1) (c) of this section, itemized particulars of that amount and the person's liability under section 130 of the Forest Act to pay that amount;
- (v) any costs determined under subsection (1) (c.1) of this section, itemized particulars of those costs and the person's liability under section 130 of the Forest Act to pay those costs;
- (vi) the person's right to a review under section 37 or to an appeal under section 39.

5     *Section 28 is amended

Status of elected candidate

- 157    (1) A person affected by an application under section 153 who has been declared elected is entitled to take office and to vote and otherwise act in the office unless the court declares the candidate disqualified, or the election invalid, and the office vacant.
- (2) If a person who is declared disqualified to hold office by the Supreme Court appeals the decision, the appeal does not operate as a stay of the declaration and the person is disqualified pending the final determination of the appeal.
- (2.1) If the election of a person is declared invalid by the Supreme Court and the decision is appealed, the appeal does not operate as a stay of the declaration and the person ceases to hold office pending the final determination of the appeal.

CLAUSE 32: [Local Government Act, section 160] is consequential to the removal of the definition of “endorsement documents” by this Bill.

CLAUSE 33: [Local Government Act, section 167] expands the authority of the minister to make an order the minister considers appropriate to achieve the purposes of Part 3 or Part 4 of the Act.

- (3) If, on the final determination of an appeal, a person is declared qualified to hold office, or an election is declared valid, the court may order that any money paid under section 155 (5) [disqualified candidate required to pay money towards cost of by-election] be repaid with interest as directed by the court.
- (4) A person who, on the final determination of an appeal, is declared qualified to hold office or validly elected is entitled,
  - (a) if the term of office for which the person was elected has not ended, to take office for any unexpired part of the term and, for this purpose, any person elected or appointed to the office since the declaration of disqualification or invalidity ceases to hold office at the time the person declared qualified or validly elected takes office, and
  - (b) if the term of office for which the person was elected is expired, to be nominated for and to be elected to office at any following election if otherwise qualified.

32 Section 160 (1) (b) and (2) (b) is amended by striking out “and endorsement documents”.

33 Section 167 is amended

(a) by repealing subsection (1) and substituting the following:

- (1) The minister may, in the following circumstances, make any order the minister considers appropriate to achieve the purposes of this Part or Part 4 [Assent Voting]:
  - (a) the minister considers the order necessary because of special circumstances regarding an election or assent voting;
  - (b) the minister considers the order necessary because of an irregularity or procedural error in the administration or conduct of an election or assent voting. , and

(b) by adding the following subsection:

- (4) An order under this section may be made retroactive to a date not earlier than the first day of the election period or 80 days before general voting day established under section 174 [general voting day for assent voting] for the assent voting, as applicable, and, if made retroactive, is deemed to have been made on the specified date.

CLAUSE 34: [Local Government Act, section 167.1] expands the authority of the minister to make regulations if the minister considers that special circumstances exist that affect or are anticipated to affect the administration or conduct of election proceedings or proceedings for assent voting.

CLAUSE 35: [Local Government Act, section 201]

- amends the period during which an alternate director appointed by the board holds office;
- makes a housekeeping amendment;
- amends the period during which an alternate director appointed by an electoral area director holds office.

34 Section 167.1 is amended by adding the following subsection:

- (4) A regulation under subsection (1) may be made retroactive to a date not earlier than the first day of the election period or 80 days before general voting day established under section 174 [general voting day for assent voting] for the assent voting, as applicable, and, if made retroactive, is deemed to have come into force on the specified date.

35 Section 201 is amended

(a) by repealing subsection (4) and substituting the following:

- (4) An appointment under subsection (3) takes effect when the resolution making the appointment is passed, and the alternate director so appointed holds office until the earlier of the following:
  - (a) the next general local election;
  - (b) the director for whom the alternate is appointed ceases to hold office for one of the following reasons:
    - (i) the office is declared vacant under section 155 (1) (b) or (2) (b) or (c) [power of court on application];
    - (ii) another candidate is declared elected in place of the director under section 155 (1) (c) or (2) (d);
    - (iii) the electoral area director renounces claim to the office under section 153 (9) [application to court respecting validity of election]. ,

(b) in subsection (5) by striking out “becomes vacant through resignation, disqualification or death,” and substituting “becomes vacant through resignation, death or disqualification, other than because of a declaration by the court under section 155 (1) (b),”, and

(c) by repealing subsection (8) and substituting the following:

- (8) An alternate director appointed by an electoral area director holds office as alternate director until the earliest of the following:
  - (a) a replacement is appointed under subsection (7);
  - (b) the next general local election;
  - (c) the electoral area director who appointed the alternate ceases to hold office for one of the reasons set out in subsection (4) (b).

CLAUSE 36: [Local Government Act, sections 201.1 and 201.2]

- adds authority for a board to appoint an acting director to fill a temporary vacancy in the office of an electoral area director;
- adds authority for an acting director to appoint an alternate acting director.

36    *The following sections are added:

Acting electoral area directors

- 201.1 (1) This section applies if an electoral area director ceases to hold office for any of the following reasons:
- (a) the office is declared vacant under section 155 (1) (b) or (2) (b) or (c) [power of court on application];
  - (b) after making an oath or affirmation under section 202, the electoral area director renounces claim to the office under section 153 (9) [application to court respecting validity of election].
- (2) A board may, by resolution, appoint an acting director to fill the vacancy in the office of the electoral area director.
- (3) A person appointed under subsection (2) must have the qualifications necessary to be nominated as a director for the electoral area.
- (4) An appointment under subsection (2) takes effect when the resolution making the appointment is passed, and the acting director so appointed holds office as an acting director until a director elected for the electoral area takes office.
- (5) An acting director appointed under subsection (2) has the same rights, duties and powers as a person elected as an electoral area director, other than the duty to appoint an alternate director under section 201.

Alternate acting electoral area directors

- 201.2 (1) An acting director appointed under section 201.1 must appoint an alternate acting director as follows:
- (a) the appointment must be made within 50 days of
    - (i) the appointment of the acting director, or
    - (ii) the office of the alternate acting director becoming vacant through resignation, disqualification or death;
  - (b) the person appointed must have the qualifications necessary to be nominated as a director for the electoral area.
- (2) An appointment under subsection (1) takes effect when
- (a) the appointment has been approved in writing by 2 electors who reside in the electoral area that the acting director represents, and
  - (b) the acting director notifies, in writing, the regional district corporate officer of the appointment of the alternate.
- (3) If an acting director does not appoint an alternate acting director in accordance with subsection (1), the board must, by resolution, appoint a person who has the qualifications necessary to be nominated as a director for that electoral area as an alternate acting director.

CLAUSE 37: [Local Government Act, section 202] is consequential to the addition by this Bill of sections 201.1 and 201.2 to the Act.

CLAUSE 38: [Local Government Act, section 338] provides for an exception to requirements for regional district service establishing bylaws to comply with the Fire Safety Act.

- (4) An appointment under subsection (3) takes effect when the resolution making the appointment is passed, and the alternate acting director so appointed holds office until a director elected for the electoral area takes office.
- (5) If the office of an acting director becomes vacant through resignation, disqualification or death,
  - (a) the alternate acting director holds the office until a director for the electoral area takes office following the next election for the office, or
  - (b) if the alternate acting director is unable or unwilling to hold office as an acting director, the board must, by resolution, appoint another person who has the qualifications to be nominated as a director for the electoral area and that person holds the office as provided in paragraph (a).
- (6) On behalf of an absent acting director, the alternate acting director appointed under this section may take the place of, vote and generally act in all matters for the absent acting director, including in relation to a matter delegated to that acting director by the board.
- (7) The acting director who appointed an alternate acting director may appoint, as a replacement for the alternate acting director, another person who has the qualifications necessary to be nominated as a director for that electoral area.
- (8) An alternate acting director appointed by an acting director holds office as an alternate acting director until a director elected for the electoral area takes office.

37 Section 202 is amended

(a) by repealing subsection (1) (c) and substituting the following:

- (c) in the case of a person appointed as an acting director or alternate acting director, within 45 days after the effective date of the appointment; ,

(b) in subsection (4) by striking out “other than a person appointed as an alternate director,” and substituting “other than a person appointed as an alternate director, acting director or alternate acting director,” and

(c) in subsection (8) by adding “or as provided in section 201 (4) or (8), 201.1 (4) or 201.2 (4) or (8), as applicable,” after “the member is entitled to hold that office through its term”.

38 Section 338 (2) is amended by adding the following paragraph:

- (j) a service for the following purposes:
  - (i) fire safety inspections, within the meaning of the Fire Safety Act, under Part 4 [Fire Safety Inspections] of that Act;

CLAUSE 39: [Local Government Act, section 380] provides for cost apportionment rules for regional district service establishing bylaws that relate to the Fire Safety Act.

CLAUSE 40: [Local Government Act, sections 511.1, 568.1 and 570.911]

- delays the application of specified bylaws for a period of 24 months in relation to subdivisions if the application for the subdivision was submitted before March 22, 2024;
- prevents the application of specified development cost charge bylaws in relation to the construction, alteration or extension of buildings if applicable building permits are issued within 24 months after the adoption of the bylaws;
- prevents the application of specified amenity cost charge bylaws in relation to the construction, alteration or extension of buildings if applicable building permits are issued within 24 months after the amendment of the bylaws.

- (ii) fire investigations, within the meaning of the Fire Safety Act, under Division 1 [Fire Investigations] of Part 7 [Fire Investigations and Inquiries] of that Act.

39 Section 380 (2) is amended by adding the following paragraph:

- (l) in the case of services referred to in section 338 (2) (j) [services under the Fire Safety Act],
  - (i) subject to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, among all the electoral areas, with the service area deemed to be all the electoral areas, and
  - (ii) if the board provides that some or all of the costs are to be apportioned among the electoral areas that the board considers benefit from the services, those costs must be apportioned among those electoral areas, with the service area deemed to be all those electoral areas.

40 The following sections are added:

Limited exception to section 511

511.1 (1) In this section, “cost charge bylaw” means

- (a) a development cost charge bylaw adopted by the Metro Vancouver Regional District or by the Greater Vancouver Water District incorporated under the Greater Vancouver Water District Act, and
  - (b) an amenity cost charge bylaw, as defined in section 570.1 [definitions in relation to Division 19.1], adopted by the Metro Vancouver Regional District.
- (2) Despite section 511, this section applies in relation to a cost charge bylaw that was adopted on or before March 22, 2024 and after
- (a) an application for a subdivision of land located outside a municipality has been submitted to a district highway manager in a form satisfactory to that official, or
  - (b) an application for a subdivision of land within a municipality has been submitted to a designated municipal officer and the applicable subdivision fee has been paid.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), a cost charge bylaw that would otherwise be applicable to the subdivision has no effect with respect to that subdivision on or before March 22, 2026 if
- (a) the application for subdivision was submitted before March 22, 2024, and
  - (b) the cost charge bylaw would increase a development cost charge or amenity cost charge on a person who obtains approval of the subdivision.

CLAUSE 40: [Local Government Act, sections 511.1, 568.1 and 570.911 – continued]

- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the applicant agrees in writing that the cost charge bylaw should have effect with respect to the subdivision.

Limited exception to section 568

568.1 (1) In this section:

“development cost charge bylaw” means a development cost charge bylaw adopted on or before March 22, 2024 by the Metro Vancouver Regional District or by the Greater Vancouver Water District incorporated under the Greater Vancouver Water District Act;

“in-stream” has the same meaning as in section 568 (1);

“precursor application” has the same meaning as in section 568 (1).

- (2) Despite section 568 (2), and subject to subsection (3) of this section, a development cost charge bylaw that would otherwise be applicable to the construction, alteration or extension of a building or structure has no effect with respect to that construction, alteration or extension if
- (a) the building permit authorizing that construction, alteration or extension is issued within 24 months after the date the development cost charge bylaw is adopted,
  - (b) a precursor application to that building permit is in-stream on the date the development cost charge bylaw is adopted, and
  - (c) the development cost charge bylaw would increase development cost charges on a person who obtains that building permit.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the applicant for that building permit agrees in writing that the development cost charge bylaw should have effect.

Limited exception to section 570.91

570.911 (1) In this section:

“amenity cost charge bylaw” means an amenity cost charge bylaw, as defined in section 570.1, adopted by the Metro Vancouver Regional District on or before March 22, 2024;

“in-stream” has the same meaning as in section 568 (1);

“precursor application” has the same meaning as in section 568 (1).

- (2) Despite section 570.91 (3), and subject to subsection (3) of this section, an amended amenity cost charge bylaw that would otherwise be applicable to the construction, alteration or extension of a building or structure has no effect with respect to that construction, alteration or extension if
- (a) the building permit authorizing that construction, alteration or extension is issued within 24 months after the date the amenity cost charge bylaw is amended,

CLAUSE 40: [Local Government Act, sections 511.1, 568.1 and 570.911 – continued]

CLAUSE 41: [Local Government Act, section 647.1]

- requires a municipal collector to give notice to each registered owner of the fee simple of property before the property may be sold at tax sale;
- establishes requirements in relation to a notice;
- deems a notice to be received in specified circumstances;
- authorizes regulations in relation to where a notice may be given and the methods by which a notice may be given.

- (b) a precursor application to that building permit is in-stream on the date the amenity cost charge bylaw is amended, and
  - (c) the amended amenity cost charge bylaw would increase amenity cost charges on a person who obtains that building permit.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the applicant for that building permit agrees in writing that the amenity cost charge bylaw should have effect.

41    *The following section is added:

Owners must be given notice before tax sale

- 647.1 (1) At least 30 days before the date of the annual tax sale, the collector must, in relation to a property subject to tax sale, give written notice to a person registered in the land title office as an owner of the fee simple of the property.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must include the following:
- (a) the time and place of the annual tax sale;
  - (b) the legal description and street address, if any, of the property subject to tax sale;
  - (c) the amount of the delinquent taxes calculated in accordance with section 246 [delinquent taxes] of the Community Charter and a statement that, if the amount of delinquent taxes is not paid before the annual tax sale, the collector will offer the property for sale by public auction at the time and place stated in the notice;
  - (d) a statement that, if the property is sold at the annual tax sale, a right of redemption will remain in the owner of the fee simple, or a person registered in the land title office as an owner of a charge on the property, until the end of the redemption period;
  - (e) a statement that the amount payable to redeem the property after the annual tax sale will be greater than the amount of delinquent taxes.
- (3) Subject to any regulations, a notice under subsection (1) must be given to the owner of the fee simple at the address of the owner set out in
- (a) the most recent revised assessment roll, as defined in section 1 (1) of the Assessment Act, or
  - (b) the records of the land title office.
- (4) A notice under subsection (1) must be given to the owner of the fee simple by one of the following methods:
- (a) by personal service;
  - (b) by sending the notice by ordinary mail, registered mail or courier;
  - (c) by sending the notice by another method prescribed by regulation.

CLAUSE 45: [Local Government Act, section 797] provides a transitional rule respecting compliance by a local government with specified provisions in relation to site-specific density benefits zoning bylaws.

- (5) If a notice under subsection (1) is given by a method other than sending by registered mail, the collector must create a record of
  - (a) the method by which the notice was given,
  - (b) the date and time the notice was given and, if applicable, the place of mailing, and
  - (c) an acknowledgement, if any, of receipt of the notice by the owner of the fee simple.
- (6) A notice given in accordance with this section, unless received earlier, is conclusively deemed to be received as follows:
  - (a) if given by sending the notice by ordinary or registered mail or courier, on the seventh day after it is mailed or received by the courier, as applicable;
  - (b) if given by sending the notice by another method prescribed by regulation, on the seventh day after it is sent.
- (7) The collector must retain a copy of each notice under subsection (1).
- (8) For the purposes of subsections (3) and (4), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations in relation to a notice under subsection (1) as follows:
  - (a) specifying alternative addresses or locations at which the notice may be given;
  - (b) establishing alternative methods of giving the notice;
  - (c) establishing restrictions and conditions on the use of alternative addresses, locations or methods.

42 Section 657 (3) is amended by adding “and section 647.1 [owners must be given notice before tax sale]” after “set out in subsection (1)”.

CLAUSE 58: [Vancouver Charter, section 119]

- amends the entitlement of a person affected by a court application regarding the qualification of the person to take office or the validity of the person's election to office;
- establishes that if a court declares an election invalid, an appeal does not operate as a stay of the declaration;
- amends the authority of a court to make an order for repayment of money paid to a municipality or regional district towards the costs of an election to fill a vacancy;
- amends the entitlement of a person declared validly elected on final determination of an appeal.

CLAUSE 59: [Vancouver Charter, section 122] is consequential to the removal of the definition of "endorsement documents" by this Bill.

CLAUSE 60: [Vancouver Charter, section 127] expands the authority of the minister to make an order the minister considers appropriate to achieve the purposes of Part I or Part II of the Act.

58    *Section 119 is repealed and the following substituted:

Status of an elected candidate

- 119.    (1) A person affected by an application under section 115 who has been declared elected is entitled to take office and to vote and otherwise act in the office unless the court declares the candidate disqualified, or the election invalid, and the office vacant.
- (2) If a person who is declared disqualified to hold office by the Supreme Court appeals the decision, the appeal does not operate as a stay of the declaration and the person is disqualified pending the final determination of the appeal.
- (2.1) If the election of a person is declared invalid by the Supreme Court and the decision is appealed, the appeal does not operate as a stay of the declaration and the person ceases to hold office pending the final determination of the appeal.
- (3) If, on the final determination of an appeal, a person is declared qualified to hold office, or an election is declared valid, the court may order that any money paid under section 117 (5) be repaid with interest as directed by the court.
- (4) A person who, on the final determination of an appeal, is declared qualified to hold office or validly elected is entitled,
- (a) if the term of office for which the person was elected has not ended, to take office for any unexpired part of the term and, for this purpose, any person elected or appointed to the office since the declaration of disqualification or invalidity ceases to hold office at the time the person declared qualified or validly elected takes office, and
- (b) if the term of office for which the person was elected is expired, to be nominated for and to be elected at any following election if otherwise qualified.
